December 1, 2010

Expands TeleTech's Professional Services Capabilities and Extends TeleTech's Geographic Presence in Eurasia and the Middle East

ENGLEWOOD, Colo., Dec 01, 2010 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- TeleTech Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: TTEC), one of the world's largest global providers of comprehensive enterprise solutions that maximize revenue, transform customer experiences and optimize business processes, today announced a significant expansion of its professional services capabilities through its acquisition of an 80 percent interest in Peppers & Rogers Group, a leading global management consulting firm specializing in customer-centric strategies for Global 1000 companies. The Peppers & Rogers Group management team will retain ownership of the remaining 20 percent interest. With operations in the U.S., Europe, the Middle East and Africa, Peppers & Rogers Group is recognized as the world's leading authority on customer-based strategies with a deep understanding of the most powerful levers that drive customer loyalty and business results.

Peppers & Rogers Group was founded in 1993 by Don Peppers and Martha Rogers, Ph.D., who have received worldwide acclaim for their thought leadership in the customer strategy field. They have authored nine business strategy books, many of which serve as the foundation for teaching effective business and market strategies at leading colleges and universities around the world, and continually feed the market with new ideas through 1to1 Media, the company's independent publishing division. Peppers & Rogers Group's client base includes leading companies in the U.S., Europe, the Middle East and Africa.

Following the acquisition, which is expected to be immediately accretive to TeleTech's earnings, Peppers & Rogers Group will continue to operate independently to objectively develop, implement and support the execution of customer-based business strategies with the ultimate goal of maximizing the lifetime value of each customer relationship. The firm leverages its proven methodologies and advanced statistical models to analyze internal and external data to segment customers and develop business and marketing strategies designed to increase loyalty, reduce attrition and drive brand leadership.

"Given the growing complexity of a global marketplace and shifting customer communication channels, clients are increasingly seeking TeleTech's strategic advisory services to develop innovative strategies to differentiate the service experience for their customers," said Ken Tuchman, TeleTech chairman and chief executive officer. "The most successful brands recognize that delivering an exceptional service experience results in more profitable revenue growth and a higher market valuation than their less customer-centric peers."

"The caliber of Peppers & Rogers Group's strategic consulting services combined with our nearly three decades of execution excellence provides us with a unique solution and further strengthens our global professional services capabilities," continued Tuchman.

"The best customer-centric strategies fall short if they aren't flawlessly executed on the front-lines," said Don Peppers, Peppers & Rogers Group co-founder. "The collaboration between TeleTech and Peppers & Rogers Group brings strategy and execution together to improve the customer experience and drive increased revenue and profitability for our clients."

"In a world where products become commoditized overnight and purchase decisions are impacted far more by social circles than corporate marketing departments, the customer experience has become the ultimate brand differentiator," said Martha Rogers, Ph.D., Peppers & Rogers Group co-founder. "Working with TeleTech will enable us to leverage the combined thought leadership, vertical expertise and solution set of the two companies for the benefit of our clients."

Peppers & Rogers Group, founded in 1993, currently operates offices on six continents across the globe including headquarters in Norwalk, Connecticut and in Istanbul, Turkey along with regional offices in Belgium, Germany, Dubai, South Africa and Kuwait.
